

Racelogic shortlisted for Business of the Year 2011

We have been shortlisted for the prestigious Chamber's Business of the Year award for companies earning more than £5m within the Milton Keynes and North Bucks region of the UK.

As a company which has seen 19 years of successive growth since its founding in 1992, Racelogic is proud to join Traka, MacIntyre and Places for People as a potential winner of one of the district's highest business honours.

This year's awards held on Thursday 20th October will see Christian Horner, Team Principal of Formula 1's Red Bull Racing Team, as a main speaker, and will be attended by a selection of the areas most esteemed businesses.

Racelogic's managing director Julian Thomas said: "It's fantastic Racelogic have been shortlisted for the Business award. We now distribute to 86 countries from our office in Buckingham and I'm proud of our staff for helping provide technical solutions to our customers in areas as diverse as automotive, motorsport, GPS, marine, mining and defence."

Rita Spada, chief executive of Milton Keynes and North Bucks Chamber of Commerce, said: "We've had a record number of entries this year from businesses that are tremendously successful in all kinds of sectors, from tourism to manufacturing."

"I know the judges have had a tough time in creating this shortlist with the range of entries being superb. Milton Keynes and North Bucks can be tremendously proud of the wealth creators in this area. We have world class businesses in our midst who are ready to take us to the next level."
